To Our Valued Patients

Your appointment is especially reserved for you. If you cannot keep your appointment, please inform the office at least 24 hours in advance so the time may be used by another patient and you can avoid the $75.00 missed appointment charge.

If your doctor took X-rays but did not send them to our office, please bring them with you or arrange for them to be here for your appointment.

If you are taking any medication, bring a list with you including times and dosages.

If necessary, arrange for a responsible adult to accompany and drive you home.

Please bring your driver license or picture ID along with your insurance cards.

An unmarried patient under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Payment is due at the time of service.

If you have insurance and have provided your insurance information to us prior to your appointment, we will file on your behalf.
Payment will be based on an estimated out of pocket expense.
